I am submitting this statement of explanation in the knowledge that, should I fail to get the two-year foreign residence requirement waived, it would impose great hardship on my wife and have a disastrous effect on both our lives.

My wife, Ann Sauters, is a citizen of the United States and has resided here all her life. It is presently impossible for my wife to return to Indonesia with me. The reasons are multiple. Financially, both of us having been students, there is no way I can accumulate the necessary money (more than $600 for my wife alone). Within Indonesia itself, there is a widespread feeling of anti-American feeling that the salary of even a college graduate provides. anti-American feeling has reached a feverish pitch which has been advised by both family and friends in Indonesia that at the present time. Of secondary importance is the fact she be forced to cut short her college education, but she failing a waiver, which, my only alternative would be but this too is filled with difficulties. My wife has complete, she is ill-prepared to be self-supporting. But, at a distance of Indonesia, it would be helpless to contribute to her support. With my strong ties in the United States, I would meet with much prejudice myself in seeking employment. And, with the present devaluation of the Indonesian rupiah, a monthly salary for a college graduate amounts to less than two dollars when translated into have been forced to work in a hazardous area for a long period of time. In addition, the Indonesian government has imposed a ban on the export of natural resources, which has led to a sharp decline in the country's economic growth. As a result, the Indonesian government has implemented various measures to stabilize the economy, including a currency devaluation and a reduction in government spending.

Indonesian government is no longer able to guarantee the safety of corps members. It seems probable that warfare in Indonesia cannot be avoided much longer. I am a trained geographer with a special background in mapping and air photo interpretation. I have traveled throughout the Indonesian islands and have detailed knowledge of each of the major areas and their resources. Due to my former compulsory association with the Indonesian army while still a student, it is quite probable that I would be placed on the front lines of any confrontation with the Indonesian army.

I have worked for the United States Army in the Philippines and have been involved in the mapping and air photo interpretation of the Philippines. I have also worked for the United States Army in the Republic of Vietnam and have been involved in the mapping and air photo interpretation of the Republic of Vietnam. I have also worked for the United States Army in the Republic of South Africa and have been involved in the mapping and air photo interpretation of the Republic of South Africa.

In the event of a conflict in Indonesia, I would be placed on the front lines of any confrontation with the Indonesian army. I would be placed on the front lines of any confrontation with the Indonesian army. I would be placed on the front lines of any confrontation with the Indonesian army.

students so I am familiar with the particulars. I handed the student his copy of the memorandum and signed his check out sheet (which is now missing from the folder). I advised him that the Center could not hold his return travel later than June 22, 1966, one year beyond the official expiration date of his grant. I impressed him with the importance of keeping in touch with ILL and asked him to come to see me in early June of this year. Approximately six months later I received a telephone call from Mr. Sactore explaining that West Associates had terminated his employment because of lack of work. He informed me that he had gotten a job with the South-Pacific Company. I advised him to notify Foundation immediately of this change and I reminded him that it would be necessary for him to see me early in June. Unfortunately, I did not follow-up with a letter. This advice was given verbally and there is nothing in my notes to substantiate this. I did not hear from Mr. Sactore again until July 5. I was only aware that this was an international assignment at that time.

1) Mr. Sactore informed me that he had written a letter to Executive Board concerning an individual assignment of duty in the Pacific Trust. He had received a reply from Executive Board and had received no reply on other matters he had mentioned. It took some time to get back and I suggested that he would have preferred not to have his name mentioned.

2) When I explained to Mr. Sactore that the individual assignment was necessary for the Foundation to continue its work in the Pacific Trust, I suggested that he should contact Executive Board immediately. I suggested that he should also contact the individual in question and suggest an interim assignment. I suggested that he should also contact the individual in question and suggest an interim assignment.

3) Mr. Sactore is responsible for the Center's work in the Pacific Trust. He is responsible for the Center's work in the Pacific Trust. He is responsible for the Center's work in the Pacific Trust.

4) Mr. Sactore needs to be contacted soon if he has any questions about the Center's work in the Pacific Trust. He needs to be contacted soon if he has any questions about the Center's work in the Pacific Trust.

5) Mr. Sactore needs to be contacted soon if he has any questions about the Center's work in the Pacific Trust. He needs to be contacted soon if he has any questions about the Center's work in the Pacific Trust.

DECISION: (Approved) (Denied)

REMARKS: (If denied, state reasons)

The applicant, a 30-year old native and citizen of Indonesia, has applied for waiver of the foreign residence requirements of section 212(a), claiming exceptional hardship for his U. S. citizen wife.

He has stated that he would be financially unable to save passage money for his wife to accompany him to Indonesia. He indicated that economic conditions in his homeland are such that he would be unable to send funds for his wife's support during his stay in Indonesia.

The applicant expresses fear that he will be taken into the army on his return home and this will cause his wife to fear for his safety.

He has attached a letter from Dr. Nishigaya saying "that such a separation would cause undue hardship and emotional strain..."

The applicant and his wife were interviewed on this date. There was no new evidence presented to substantiate the claim of hardship. It was revealed that the wife's mother and father are at present residing in Honolulu. Up to the time of the marriage, she was supported by her parents. She offered no reasons why she could not make her home with them again in event her husband was required to depart the United States.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Re: Mrs. Stanley Ann Dunham Soetoro

Mrs. Stanley Ann Dunham Soetoro, an under graduate student at the University of Hawaii is faced with a most difficult problem--that of being separated from her husband Lolo Soetoro, an Indonesian whose visa to the United States expires in June 1965.

Internal problems in Indonesia make it almost impossible to go there even if it were possible financially to do so--and it is not.

Other considerations would make it mandatory that the couple be separated for a very long period of time.

Medically, I feel that such a separation would cause undue hardship and emotional strain were it to happen, and any help to alleviate the situation would be of great service to her.

Sincerely,

Dr. T. Nishigaya

6. [redacted]

Since the first interview there have been placed in the file two memos from East West Center indicating that the Government of Indonesia is interested in having this student return to his homeland. AFFIDAVIT OF ORLY TAITZ

1. I, Orly Taitz, am over 18 years old, I am an attorney, licensed in the state of California and admitted in all courts of California, 9th Circuit Court of Appeals, 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals and Supreme Court of the United States. I have personal knowledge of the facts described below and I can competently testify at trial to the following:

2. I received information from licensed investigators Sankey and Daniels as well as recently retired senior deportation officer John Sampson, that for most of his life Barack Obama used and is currently using a Connecticut social security number [REDACTED]

3. The first three digits of the number [REDACTED] were assigned by the Social Security administration to the state of Connecticut.

4. Based on information and belief, Obama was never a resident of Connecticut.

5. Concerned that we have an individual fraudulently using a stolen social security number from a state, where he never resided, I decided to verify this information through official sources of the U.S. government.

6. I went on the official website for the U.S. government www.sss.gov. This website provides verification of the Selective Service registration with the U.S. military.

7. One cannot occupy an executive position with the U.S. government without such registration with the Selective Service.

Instructions

I, Linda Jordan am over 18 years old, do not suffer from any mental impairment, have personal knowledge of the facts listed below and declare under penalty of perjury:

I used the government run E-Verify System to verify the employment eligibility for Barack H Obama (Obama) and it revealed a "Notice of Mismatch" between Obama's name, birth date and Social Security Number (SSN), compared to the information the Social Security Administration has on file.

I saw Obama's Selective Service Registration (SSR) form which was available on the web at www.sss.gov and copied the SSN Obama used on that form. I also read the reports of licensed investigators Neil Sankey, Susan Daniels and the opinion of retired senior deportation officer of the department of Homeland Security John Sampson, that the SSN Obama was using was fraudulent and/or never issued to him.

Between October 2008 and May 2011, I submitted several requests to agencies and people with the legal responsibility and authority to investigate the use of forged documents and election fraud, concerning Obama's birth records and SSN. (attachment A)

To date no one with the legal responsibility and authority has responded to any of my requests.

I read part of the testimony of Marianna LaCanfora before the Committee on Ways and Means Sub Committee on Social Security in the House of Representatives dated April 14th, 2011. She explained that a SSN in conjunction with a proper identity document determine whether a person is authorized to work. LaCanfora said that the E-Verify system run by the government is a free, Internet-based system that allows employers to electronically verify the employment eligibility of their employees. The Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 required all employers to verify the identity and employment eligibility of all new employees regardless of citizenship or national origin.

I considered myself to be one of the employers of the President of the United States.

On July 26, 2011, I tried to enroll in the E-Verify System but it required the employer to enter data from their employees I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification Form. I have been unable to locate one for Obama.

On August 17, 2011, I went back on the E-Verify website and saw that there was a "Self-Service" function that was more streamlined and easier to use when checking an employees eligibility. I entered the name Barack H Obama, birth date August 4, 1961 and SS [REDACTED]. This data was entered correctly. The report I got back from the SSA included a "Notice of Mismatch with Social Security Administration (SSA) Records". (attachment B) things were okay. Ruth, our new mother, was nice enough to us then. She treated us almost like her own children. Her parents were rich, I think, and they would send us beautiful presents from the States. I'd get really excited whenever a package came from them. But I remember sometimes Roy would refuse to take their gifts, even when they sent us sweets. I remember once he refused some chocolates they had sent, but later in the night, when he thought I was asleep, I saw him taking some of the chocolates that I had left on our dresser. But I didn't say anything, because I think I knew that he was unhappy.

"Then things began to change. When Ruth gave birth to Mark and David, her attention shifted to them. The Old Man, he left the American company to work in the government, for the Ministry of Tourism. He may have had political ambitions, and at first he was doing well in the government. But by 1966 or 1967, the divisions in Kenya had become more serious. President Kenyatta was from the largest tribe, the Kikuyus. The Luos, the second largest tribe, began to complain that Kikuyus were getting all the best jobs. The government was full of intrigue. The vice-president, Odinga, was a Luo, and he said the government was becoming corrupt. That, instead of serving those who had fought for independence, Kenyan politicians had taken the place of the white colonials, buying up businesses and land that should be redistributed to the people. Odinga tried to start his own party, but was placed under house arrest as a Communist. Another popular Luo minister, Tom M'boya, was killed by a Kikuyu gunman. Luos began to protest in the streets, and the government police cracked down. People were killed. All this created more suspicion between the tribes.

"Most of the Old Man's friends just kept quiet and learned to live with the situation. But the Old Man began to speak up. He would tell people that tribalism was going to ruin the country and that unqualified men were taking the best jobs. His friends tried to warn him about saying such things in public, but he didn't care. He always thought he knew what was best, you see. When he was passed up for a promotion, he complained loudly. 'How can you be my senior,' he would say to one of the ministers, 'and yet I am teaching you how to do your job properly?' Word got back to Kenyatta that the Old Man was a troublemaker, and he was called in to see the president. According to the stories, Kenyatta said to the Old Man that, because he could not keep his mouth shut, he would not work again until he had no shoes on his feet.

"I don't know how much of these details are true. But I know that with the president as an enemy things became very bad for the Old Man. He was banished from the government—blacklisted. None of the ministries would give him work. When he went to foreign companies to look for a post, the companies were warned not to hire him. He began looking abroad and was hired to work for the African Development Bank in Addis Ababa, but before he could join them, the government revoked his passport, and he couldn't even leave Kenya.

"Finally, he had to accept a small job with the World Bank. Even this was possible only because one of his friends had a big job for him. He kept food on the table, but it was a big fall for him.

began to drink heavily, and many of the people he knew stopped coming to visit because now it was dangerous to be seen with him. They told him that maybe if he apologized, changed his attitude, he would be all right. But he refused and continued to say whatever was on his mind.

"I understood most of this only when I was older. At the time, I just saw that life at home became very difficult. The Old Man never spoke to Roy or myself except to scold us. He would come home very late, drunk, and I could hear him shouting at Ruth, telling her to cook him food. Ruth became very bitter at how the Old Man had changed. Sometimes, when he wasn't home, she would tell Roy and myself that our father was crazy and that she pitied us for having such a father. I didn't blame her for this—I probably agreed. But I noticed that, even more than before, she treated us differently from her own two sons. She would be angry with her children and there was
